

The Christian Teacher's Competency

- Makes effective use of a wide variety of appropriate materials provided by the church and own initiative.
 - Provides learners with frequent opportunity to participate in and to lead classroom activities; encourages interaction
- Demonstrates openness to learner opinion, effectively eliciting expressions of differing views.
 - Enlists learner cooperation in constantly maintaining an atmosphere of purposeful self-regulation.
- Shares with learners in planning and arranging a setting that related to current objectives and provides for maximum learning.
 - Shares goals and develops cooperatively with learners appropriate curriculum plans for individual and group activities pertinent to their interests, needs, and abilities.
- Demonstrates thoroughness and resourcefulness in preparation.
 - Utilizes a wide variety of learning activities, appropriate for the educational aims and engaging all learners.
- Evidence skill and thoroughness in developing learner ability to related subject matter to life situations.
 - Facilitates encounter with subject matter by skillfully asking and eliciting questions, directing individual and group procedures, and help learners come to their own conclusions.
- Identifies learning difficulties skillfully; provides effective individual and group interaction.
 - Evidences a spirit of cooperation and mutual interest resulting in high moral.
- Identifies personal and social problems skillfully and designs effective classroom activities to encourage Christian action.
 - Initiates systematic plans and regular activities to develop student skills in interpreting the Bible; utilize appropriate resources effectively.
- Utilizes accepted procedures for evaluating progress of each learner and adjusts program accordingly.
 - Evidence thorough awareness of peer relationships and consistently takes effective action
- Learners seek out this teaching frequently for counsel on both personal and subject matter problems
 - Recognizes learner problems and skillfully determines cases for referral to appropriate professional church staff
- Evidences regular and knowledgeable participation in the total life and worship of the church
 - Assumes responsibility